

A Day in My Dream World

By Safeeya Haque Islam

In the real world, I'm Safeeya and I'm eight,
Chores make me wait—oh man, that's not great!
Homework's a drag and veggies make me crunch,
Then I wait for a grown-up to take me for lunch!

But in my dreams, I zoom up so high,
I'm the big boss as I fly through the sky!
I laugh and play—I'm super cool,
In dream land, we totally break every rule.

My bestie Caroline is always near,
We giggle and sing with not one hint of fear.
We chill on cotton candy clouds so sweet,
Munching and floating on our happy feet.

Stroll on rainbows made of Skittles so bright,
Chasing Roblox pals from morning till night.
Everything sparkles in magical light,
My dream world is rad—a total sight!

I ride unicorns with glitter horns,
Zooming across roads with no grown-up warnings.
When I wish for treats, they come with a zing,
Magic pops up with a poof and a spring!

I even made a deal with the tooth fairy—so fun!
Haha! I don't need to brush once the deal is done.
Lol, I got Santa chillin' in my pocket, no stress,
And the Easter bunny brings me all the golden eggs I guess!

Dancing with leprechauns, I feel so lucky,
My dream world's 24/7, always lucky.
Yummy treats and fun, with adventures so true—
Come and join me for a day in my magic world, where every dream comes through!
