

Our Big Adventure

By: Josie Floyd

Once there were three kids Riley, Aiden, and Jack with big imaginations. They wanted to make different worlds and stay kids forever! One day when they were on a hike they saw something shining, so they went to check it out. When they were deep in the hole they saw a portal which they got closer and closer and closer to until boom they got sucked in. Where are we, said Jack? I think we are in a new universe, said Riley. What do we do now, said Aiden? I don't know, said Jack? The kids were very confused so they decided to explore. There is nothing here, said Riley. Hey Jack, said Aiden, remember when we had a sleepover and we grabbed all the pillows and made a huge fort? Yeah, but that's not important right now, said Jack. Guys I think I know why there's nothing here, said Riley. Right in front of them was a giant pillow fort! I think if we think of something it becomes real, said Riley! Guys, should we make more cool stuff, said Jack? Of course we should said Aiden. We should make a blue castle, with a green frozen yogurt stand with all the flavors and toppings, said Riley! And our own movie theater and arcade with pizza, popcorn, and a smoothie bar said Jack! Wow that's a lot, said Aiden.

Do you really think we could pull that off? Of course we can, we already thought of it and look, its right there, said Jack. Come on, what are you guys waiting for? Let's go in! They went to the arcade and then the smoothie bar, they went to every room at least ten times! They kept having the greatest and craziest adventures.

The End.
