

A Day in My Dream World

When I woke up I saw that I was surrounded by glistening gold. My servants told me I was a queen. I was excited to rule the world.

When I went outside and stretched , never-melting snow started falling from a fluffy cloud above me, I had magic! I saw the sky was rainbow colored and the different colored clouds were made of cotton candy.

A fabulous unicorn appeared and said she was my pet. She took me for a ride to a magical land where using my magic, I created heaps of snow to play with.

When I made a snowman, it magically came alive and said “Hello”. I made a delicious snow cone out of the snow and ate it. It tasted like all the flavors that could ever be made in Kona ice. When I ate the snow cone, my mouth didn’t feel a bit cold.

After a few hours of playing with my awesome snowman, I checked on my watch and it was midnight, but I didn’t see a hint of darkness outside. So I guessed there was no night. But anyways, I went back to my castle to sleep and I hoped tomorrow would be as fun as it was today.
