

My Powers and Adventures

If I had 3 powers, they would be immortality, hypnotization, and the power to take other powers. My 1st adventure was when I was 8. I had a battle to death. I had to fight another person with powers. His powers were to fly, run at the speed of light, and shapeshift. I only had to take away his powers, but it was hard to because he was shapeshifting, running, and flying at the same time! Then, I let him go because I don't like killing. Now, I had three new powers!

Once, my family won against a guilty man in court, so he swore that he would rob our house when he came back from his 9-year sentence to jail. When he came back, he did! Fortunately, my dad heard him so we attacked him. I started circling him with my new power of lightning speed, but the thief was fast and strong. He caught me out of the circle and I started flying! He was soon in the air because he was a short thief. Soon, he was holding on even tighter because he was scared of heights. Next, he was clinging on to our 6ft chimney. Meanwhile, my mom phoned the police and I won an award of bravery from President Trump.

During the awarding ceremony, a bomb started falling! However, I saw it and I flew up and caught it. With the help of the U.S. Airforce, I put the criminal in jail. If you're wondering, those were my 2nd and 3rd adventures and they were in January 18th, 2025 and February 7th, 2025. The short thief in my 2nd adventure was sentenced a life sentence because he robbed the White House. He also robbed Donald Trump's most expensive suit and Usha Vance's most expensive dress. In the end they got they're most expensive clothes back.

In my 4th adventure I was called by Donald Trump to help the army stop Russian terrorists from terrorizing people. First, they lowered me into the terrorists' jet. Then, I started shapeshifting to get through tubes and pipes because I didn't know the codes to the doors. Next, I saw the group of terrorists playing cards, and when they saw me, they started attacking me, but before they attacked me, I hypnotized them into going to jail lock, themselves in, and never come out again.

In my 5th adventure I was called to Texas because a human eating tree was on the loose. It had already eaten 7 policemen and 13 police dogs! So I went to Texas, but I didn't see the tree. Later, I asked someone when the monstrous tree would come out. The person said that it would be out that week on Friday, the 13th of February. On Friday, I went outside and saw the tree. It wasn't a regular tree, and it wasn't made out of wood, metal, plastic, clay, or any object in the world. Then, I saw that the tree was about to eat an old lady who was blind! Luckily, I had the power to run as fast as lightning, so I saved the old lady.

Then, the tree was very mad at me, so it ate me, and I survived because of my immortality. Then, I saw something glowing inside the tree, and I shapeshifted to get inside the small space the light was coming from. In the space, there were aliens doing experiments on human and dog bodies, before they could zap me with their laser gun, I hypnotized them into reviving the dog and human bodies, and going back to their own planet, and never come back again. Then, I became Donald Trump's private bodyguard. These are all of my adventures and I am looking forward to more.
