

A day in my dream world.

This night I had a very cool dream. I was looking at the sky, and all the planets started to talk. But only Jupiter said, the sun is going to hurt you, just then everything started to pop, but only I didn't pop. Do you know why I didn't pop? Because I am not in the shape of a circle. Now let's stop the questions and go to the dream. After everything finished popping it was only me and the sun, for few minutes no one talked,

a day in my dreamworld
but someone did talk after a while, do you know who, it was me! I said to the sun, how can you live so hot? And the sun said, I don't know how but God created me like this. O how wonderful it would have been if only I was like you so big and so hot, and the sun said do you want me to bring all the planets back? and I said yes. OK said the sun and the sun made all the planets come back. Ring a ring time to wake up said the clock,

Mom came in the room and said time for school the school bus is coming. Ok mom I said.
