

The Last Day of School (With a Twist)

It was the last day of school. Tina could not wait to attend her classroom 204 with her favorite teacher, Mrs. C. Mrs. C gave a very old pencil to Tina and to draw anything. Tina drew her friends as animals - Tim as lion, Tanyah as bunny, Toasty as monkey. Suddenly, they all turned into those animals!

Tim exclaimed, "I have a tail and paws and I can roar. This is fantastic!" Tanyah said, "I have fur and pink ears. I can hop!" Toasty started jumping all around in the classroom and screaming "Ooooh ooh aaah aah!"

The whole class started barking, flying, slithering, screeching and jumping. Mrs. C became a bald eagle hovering above Tanyah, the bunny! Tanyah was so scared!

Tina became amazed and scared. She thought, "Is this pencil a magic one?" She thought to stop the whole thing right away, so she drew a fairy with a wand in her hand with the magical pencil. Tina became a fairy, she knew all the spells and said the spell "Pendora Sedum" that could convert the animals back into humans. The spell worked and the children became humans again.

All the children shouted, "This is the best last day ever!"

After returning home, Tina narrated the whole story to her mom. Her mom didn't believe her at all. But still, Tina kept on shouting and shouting. So, her mom said, "Tina, why are you behaving like an animal?" Tina replied, "Mom, even if I become an animal, I know the spell to become human again! Ha ha ha...."
