

Last day (With a twist)

I was planning so many things as it was my last day of school. I was on the bus to go home and fell asleep. When I opened my eyes I didn't see anyone in the bus and my bus driver fainted and the place looks different. I stepped out of the bus and realized that I landed on a different planet called Heartville.

I was curious and hungry, and then I saw an alien who had a heart on her forehead. I was frightened to see the alien and ran to hide in the bus.

The alien followed me in the bus with a big smile and a plate full of food. She kept the plate near me and left the bus. Then I realized this alien is friendly so I ate up all the food and tried to see what the alien was doing.

I tried to talk to the alien but both of us didn't understand each other. I got an idea using the translator app from my phone, so I could communicate with the alien.

The alien seems to have a gadget that allows you to travel anywhere in the galaxy. So she sent my bus with me and my and my bus driver back to my bus stop. I opened my eyes and realized that it was all a dream. I immediately got off the bus and ran home to tell my family about the dream.

We all laughed out loud and had so much fun on my last day of school.
