

THE PARTY WRECKERS

By: Sanaya Telang

One spooky Halloween two monsters living high in the mountains in their dark cave decided to have some fun. So, one monster named Barney, who had purple fur, spikey horns and three eyes had an idea. "Let's wreck a party in the city"! he exclaimed. Then with one glance 'BINGO' he found his target! In excitement he ran to his brother Tippy and shared his plan. Tippy had shiny purple skin, cute fluffy ears and one eye. The moment Barney asked Tippy, Tippy shouted "YES! Let's do it"! The two silly monsters left for their party adventure.

It was not an easy journey to reach the city. They crossed steep hills, swam in deep lakes and fought giant bears to reach the city. But it was all worth it. Before they knew it, they were at the party door. They carefully sneaked inside. Their eyes popped out seeing the party. They stole the goodies, threw the popcorn, spilled the drinks, and broke the cups. Suddenly they smelled Pumpkin Pie and ran to eat some. As they ate the pie, they realized that the party indeed was fun and the people were kind. So, they told everyone that they were real monsters and not in a Halloween costume.

Hearing that people got scared and tried calling 911! The monster brothers begged for forgiveness and promised to be good. The nice people gave them a chance and let them stay. They enjoyed the party! On their way back Barney told Tippy, "We'll come back on Thanksgiving". Tippy slyly replied, "and we'll wreck it"! They both had an evil laughter. "HAHAHA"! "Thanksgiving, here we come"!
