

AVA AND THE AAchhoo MONSTER!

By Aurinko Ominira

8-year-old

Once upon a time, there was an eight-year-old girl named Ava Carter. She lived in a small cottage next to a forest. Ava's favorite thing to do was play in the forest. But one day, Ava went too far and entered a cave she discovered. She thought no one lived there, so she decided to stay for the night. She entered the cave and fell asleep.

Then, when it is almost morning time a scary monster came and roared loudly, ROAR!!!!

Then Ava woke up and screamed, AAAA!!!! SAVE ME!!!!

The monster said, "I will eat you!" But Ava gave the monster a piece of chicken she had in her pocket and ran away.

The monster said, "Stop, I won't eat you. I was very hungry." Then, the monster apologized, and Ava asked what's your name?

The monster said my name is AAchhoo...

Ava started giggling to hear the monster's name. Ava said I have a little brother, whenever he hears AAchhoo... then he says OH NO!!!

Hearing Ava's little brother's story, the monster started giggling too.

Ava told the monster, "You are funny, not scary anymore."

AAchhoo smiled and told Ava we can be friends. He showed Ava secret forest paths and the beautiful flowers.

They laughed and played.

"Thank you for being my friend," AAchho said.

Ava waved goodbye. "See you again!"

And from that day on, the forest had a monster and a little girl who were best friends.

THE END!
