

A Monster`s Halloween - Sia Chandra

Above the earth was a land filled with MONSTERS, Monsterville they called it. It was two days before Halloween and on Halloween all the monsters would dress up, jump off Monsterville, land on earth, and go trick or treating. Halloween was the only time monsters could enter the human world as on this day they blend in well with the humans. Lilly the monster was 5-years-old. It was going to be her first time in the human world because only monsters above 4 years were allowed to go to the human world. Lilly's costume selection was a nightmare and her older brother didn't help much. It was only after her parents helped that she decided on wearing an angel costume.

“EEEEEEEEEEK” Lilly screamed “I can’t believe I am doing this “OK, lets go” said mom. Lilly said “Ready” and then she took a breath then jumped. Once on earth, the fun began. “Trick or treat”, Lilly screamed as she ran towards the first house, which had a sign: Free Candy This Way. She followed the sign but found herself in a spooky alleyway. She heard a tiny voice “Lost?” “Yes,” replied Lilly. She followed the voice and saw a kid who said, “Ruby is my name and I can help you”. “I am Lilly” said Lilly “ don’t come near me, I am a monster” “Cool” Ruby said, “Not scared of me?” Lilly asked “Nope, grown-ups are only scared of monsters,” said Ruby. To Lilly’s surprise, Ruby also showed her the way out and helped her meet her parents. Lilly’s parents thanked Ruby and took Lilly back home.

It was a short stay for Lilly with only one piece of candy. But, Lilly decided to be more careful and make more human friends next Halloween.
