

A Cozy Day at Home

By: Jayden Connot

It was Saturday and I was ready for the weekend. Hmm? “What shall I do today?” I said to myself.

I thought about it and I decided to get into the bubble bath. It was relaxing. Then, I ate pancakes for breakfast. Avery, my little sister, wanted me to play with her. We built a fort together and crawled inside.

Inside we were suddenly in a magical kingdom. We had anything any human could ever need. There was a gate with our huge house behind it. There was a sign on the gate saying, “FOR JAYDEN AND AVERY.”

And when we got out it was lunchtime. We ate a sun butter and jelly sandwich. Yum. My favorite for lunch.

Then, in rest time, I went back to the fort, and the house was even bigger! It had its own pool and hot tub. It also had people that gave massages and its own Pizza Hut. I had fun there all afternoon.

After rest time was over, I showed Avery. She loved it. She couldn't even believe her eyes. Then, I showed the rest of my family. We hung out there until right before supper time. Dad said he had a surprise for us. He ordered pizza for our house to eat. Then, he said we could watch a movie, too. It was the best day ever!

When I was in bed I thought about how good the day was and I fell fast asleep because it was the greatest day ever.

The end.
