

When I helped someone

Last February, on our drive home from vacation, we got stuck in a snowstorm. We had to get a hotel room because Mommy did not want Daddy to drive anymore. We ordered food and we went outside to wait for it and while we waited we played in the snow. Then my sister and I heard a noise and we went to see what it was. We found a stray kitten behind a utility shed. We rescued the kitten from the freezing cold. Then we asked the front desk clerk if she knew of a good home for the kitten. The clerk surprised us and said, "I will keep the kitten. It can play with my other cat." My best time I helped was when we rescued the stray kitten. If we had not rescued the helpless kitty, it would have frozen. Instead the kitten got a new home!
