

MY GARDEN'S SECRET SUPERPOWER

When I walk into my garden, I find it has a superpower. It is teleporting. My garden has flowers and trees.

When I touched a blue flower. It took me to India. I went to my grandparents house. After they saw me, they felt happy.

Now I touched a yellow flower. It took me to France. I saw the Eiffel Tower in Paris. After watching it I felt amazing.

Then I touched an oak tree. It took me to Portugal to meet Ronaldo. I said hello and he taught me tricks on soccer.

Last I touched a cherry blossom tree. It took me to Dubai. I ate Dubai chocolate and I went to Dubai mall.

My garden is the happiest place in the world because it takes me to places and brings me back. It makes every day special with beautiful memories.
