

8/3/26

My dream vacation

The terrific Kenya trip

Hello every one!

Today I'm going to talk about my dream vacation. I want to go to Kenya to see Africa's Great Migration with my friend Zack. I will be very excited because none of us have been to Kenya. We'll stay (1)

there in Kenya's world-renowned classic safari camp.

I learnt about this intense migration on national geographic channel and I keep wondering about how a million wildebeest, countless zebra and gazelles follow the rains across Kenya's Masai Mara in quest of greener pastures.

The most thrilling part of this vacation will be when these animals will have to cross the river banks while sly crocodiles are snapping below and lions prowling the banks. There will be thundering hooves and panicking brays of these huge creatures. I'm sure this is going to be a (144) pulse-quickenning drama.

I also want to see how adult

(3)

zebras save their babies from these ferocious predators

(65) while still saving their own lives.

It'll be breathtaking and dramatic to see the chase between predator and prey where some of them will make it and some will die. I'm sure this will be unforgettable trip of our lives. It'll also teach me how to run for your life in danger.

(4) Virad Gupta.